No need to hide
from Genealogists!

Where to Begin?

Ge·ne·al·o·gy:

The study or investigation of
ancestry & family histories

- Who are Genealogists?
- What are They Seeking?
- Where Can You Find Answers?

Who Are You Helping?

- There are two main types of genealogists:
 - Patrons visiting your community looking for local ancestors
 - Patrons from your community looking for ancestors elsewhere
 - What are they seeking? EVERYTHING!

Genealogy Materials @ Your Library

- Assess your collections
 - What genealogy resources do you have?
 - County Histories & Reference Books
 - Maps
 - Newspapers
 - Phone Books/City Directories etc.
- Create finding aids for your genealogical information highlighting these resources

Genealogy Materials @ Your Library

- Is there a historical or genealogical society in your area you can rely on for information?
- Who else may collect genealogy records and artifacts in your area?
- Does Your library participate in Inter-Library Loan?

Genealogy online @ Your Library

- Does your library subscribe to online genealogy resources?
- Does your library link to other genealogy websites on your website?
- Has your library created online genealogy resources for items within your collections?
 - obit index
 - Historic photos

The Reference Interview

Conducting a Reference Interview

- Assess their skill level
- Common types of questions include:
 - Directional
 - Beginning methodology
 - Experiential research
- Three main points to a genealogy question: name, place & time

Conducting A Reference Interview

- Keep it Simple
 - Limit patrons to two main topics
 - Keep them on point
 - Set a time limit
 - Schedule a follow-up interview
 - Ask guided questions

Conducting A Reference Interview

- What to ask in your reference interview:
 - What do you know?
 - What records do you already have?
 - What resources have you already used?
 - What do you want to accomplish?

Things to Know: Census

- Census returns are widely available online for free and can help any researcher begin to trace their ancestor
 - Federal Censuses have been recorded every 10 years on the zeros since 1790
 - Each census collects different information
 - 1790-1840 censuses only listed names of head-of-household
 - 1850-present every name within the household is recorded
 - 1940 is the most recent census available online to the public

The image shows a detailed 1900 US Census form for a household in Illinois. The form is titled "DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE-BUREAU OF THE CENSUS FIFTEENTH CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES: 1900 POPULATION SCHEDULE". It lists 14 individuals, including children and adults, with their names, birth dates, marital status, race, birthplace, and occupation. The household is headed by a male named [Name] who is a farmer. The form also includes a section for the head of household and a section for the enumerator's name and date.

Jeremiah Austin-W-8106

Mr. C.M. Romer
37 So. Albany Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Jeremiah Austin and that of his father, also, the number of "Austins" who served in that war.

The record of only one Jeremiah Austin has been found. It is given herein as found in pension claim, W-8106, based upon his service in the Revolutionary War. The full name of his father is essential in order to begin a search of the records and all data you may have in regard to him, such as approximate dates of birth and death, places of residence at enlistment and after service, and given name of wife.

This office is unable to furnish the number of soldiers with the surname Austin, who served in the Revolutionary War.

Jeremiah Austin
W-8106

Jeremiah Austin was born December 30, 1768, in Charlestown, Washington County, Rhode Island. The names of his parents are not shown.

While residing in Richmond, Rhode Island, Jeremiah Austin enlisted and served as a private with the Rhode Island Troops, as follows: from January 1, 1777 to March, 1777, in Captain Mann's Company, Colonel Thomas Foster's Regiment; from May, 1777, to March 16, 1778, in Captain Nicholas Basset's Company, Colonel Joseph Stanton's Regiment; from March 16, 1778 to March 16, 1779, in Captain Benjamin Hopkin's Company, Colonel John Topham's Regiment. He was in the battle at Quaker Hill, Rhode Island, where he received two wounds, one from a ball and the other from a bayonet.

DAR Library

Since its founding in 1896, the DAR Library has grown into a specialized collection of American genealogical and historical manuscripts and publications, as well as powerful on-site databases. The DAR Library collection contains over 225,000 books, 10,000 research files, thousands of manuscript items, and special collections of African American, Native American, and women's history, genealogy and culture. Nearly 40,000 family histories and genealogies comprise a major portion of the book collection, many of which are unique or available in only a few libraries in the country. The library is free and open to the public.
