Description

Scott-Morgan CUSD #2 consists of one school building that serves elementary, junior high, and high school age students. The district serves around 220 students from communities such as Bluffs, Naples, and Exeter. 51% of students qualify as low income. The district has a full-time librarian, Dana Rahe, who staffs the library 37.5 hours per week.

The school district is interested in obtaining RAILS membership in order to access continuing education and grants, including those from the Illinois State Library. The library has a Follett Destiny ILS. Dana is active in AISLE.
