7. New Business

7.1. Report from ICOLC Strategies for Open Collaboration Task Force: "Opportunities and Challenges to Build the Future We Need" – Aaron Skog (SWAN), Jill Morris (PALCI), Lucy Harrison (GALILEO) Skog, Morris, and Harrison shared the report "Opportunities and Challenges to Build the Future We Need" developed by the ICOLC Strategies for Open Collaboration in Library Consortia Task Force. The report highlights what libraries can do to regain ownership of tools and services to create a more competitive marketplace in which libraries have choice, plentiful solutions, and the opportunity for collaboration. Skog outlined how libraries and consortia might rethink their operations to align with their organizational values and goals, and how libraries can explore collaborative, open-source solutions. Morris discussed reframing contracts for proprietary services to make sure they evolve with and meet institutional needs and international standards for interoperability. Harrison highlighted action steps organizations can take to follow the approach outlined in the report and move toward collaborative, alternative solutions and institutional empowerment.

7.2. Report on RAILS World Language Cataloging Service and CCS procedural collaboration

George presented the RAILS World Language Cataloging Services Program, a statewide cataloging support program that provides supplementary cataloging services to Illinois libraries where original or world language cataloging is needed. The services cover all languages that are considered part of the library's regular collection. Eligible formats include physical print and AV materials. Currently, 22 public libraries, 2 academic libraries, 1 specialized library, and 2 school libraries utilize this services, and 19 world languages have been cataloged. Fischer reviewed how CCS collaborated with RAILS in establishing a standard for cataloging procedures, outlined in the Cataloger's Wiki, to help the RAILS World Language Cataloging Service gain traction and adhere to local cataloging practices across the state. Feedback for the World Language Cataloging Service has been mostly positive, and the service has significantly decreased the backlog of catalog titles for users. Fischer shared the Cataloger's Wiki, the Cataloging Practices Course, and the CCS-RAILS Cataloging Profile.

7.3. LLSAP grant processes and RAILCAR data collection in FY2024

Slaughter stated the need to implement tools to ensure members are making informed decisions about their automation processes while simultaneously supporting LLSAP operations, membership growth, and library automation in general. The goal of data collection in the LLSAP support grant and catalog membership grant applications is to provide more data-driven decision-making tools. Halter presented a sample of data that has been collected so far in developing the RAILCAR tool. Consortia members are excited about the questions being asked and the possibilities for more “apples to apples” comparisons among LLSAPs and automation processes.

7.4. FY2024 meeting schedule (Action Requested)

Slaughter amended the FY2024 meeting schedule document to state that the April meeting will be held Monday, April 15, 2024 at 10:00 am instead of Saturday, April 13.

Slaney moved to approve the FY 2024 RAILS Board Consortia Committee Meeting Schedule as amended, and Skog seconded. The motion was unanimously approved on a roll call vote.

Ayes: Coulter, Malinowski, Millen, Orrison, Slaney, Skog, Stagg

Nays: None

7.5. Contracting libraries and paper libraries

Slaughter clarified the difference between Paper Libraries and Contracting Libraries. In paper libraries, residents are taxed for library services below a threshold that can support library services; therefore, these residents go unserved by a public library and are ineligible to purchase non-resident cards because they are already taxed for library services. Contracting libraries tax residents at an appropriate rate but have outsourced the library service provision to a neighboring library. Heath stated that RAILS is working to add a component to L2 to help identify contracting libraries and their parent libraries. Accurate reporting will help ensure that deals and discounts for these libraries are equitable. Coulter requested written resources to aid patrons when questions about taxes and access come up due to the volume of paper libraries within PrairieCat's service area. G. Harrison noted that the Illinois State Library tracks contracting libraries, but not paper libraries.

8. Meeting Recap and Agenda Building for the Next RAILS Board Consortia Committee Meeting
The next meeting will include another update on grant processes and RAILCAR. The next RAILS Board Consortia Committee meeting will be held on July 17, 2023 at 10:00 am in person.

9. Adjournment

Stagg adjourned the meeting at 11:53am.
