Description

Newark Community Consolidated School District 66 is a two-building school district in Kendall County. The district serves approximately 231 students from K-8. According to ISBE, 28% of district students reported as low income. Both schools have staffed libraries.

The librarian, Lisa Snyder, attended the 2023 Illinois School Library Workers Symposium (ISLWS). We spoke over Zoom recently and the district is interested in joining the system for access to continuing education, grants, deals & discounts, support for e-books, and more. This school district feeds into Newark Community HSD 18 which is a current RAILS member library.
