

RAILS EMPLOYMENT

The Executive Director bears final authority and responsibility for personnel matters in accordance with RAILS' policies. Staff recruitment, evaluations and promotions, discipline management and terminations, as well as other personnel-related activities, are conducted through the Human Resources department in accordance with RAILS' policies. The Human Resources department also maintains written RAILS' personnel evaluation records and establishes and maintains a Human Resources system for personnel.